

CHILD ID: JMA 003
CHILD STORY

Yu's parent died and left to a Buddhist temple. She was adopted by Buddhist family in Eastern Yangon. We gave her birthday and name on the day picked up near from public bus station. U Win says, that she was breathing weakly when he picked up and brought her to the nearest clinic. After that she was sent to our orphanage for changing her life. At first she never smiles, but now she always smiles and very sweet.

She is very intelligent and good at Math, her mental work faster than the calculator. She is good in all subjects especially Mathematics. She takes pains in preparing the lessons. All her orphan brothers and sister respected by friend alike. Apart from her study hours she read cartoon, magazine, novel and journal. She want to become a good Doctor for many orphans children.
