CHILD STORY

Ni Ni arrived from Varpi village since their parent were died for malaria in the farm. The village where they were lived was rural place of upper Myanmar. So that they are in struggle to provide for their selves, as their relative are not able to provide for their daily needs. She was brought to JMA when she was 2 years of age.

Ni Ni is a young girl who is deeply devoted to God. She is always very active in the church service and listening to every sermon. She is happy to study the bible and read it every day. She loves to tell the story to the other children so that she firmly considered to become a teacher.
